It's been nearly 2 months now Jsy and I miss you do much. I come into his bedroom and expect to see you taking a nap I want you.to be drinking coffee when I get up waiting on me. Makayla took it really hard, Trisha cried said she hoped you knew she loved you. I tried to do everything like you would ot wanted. I started to send yout SUIT but Charles and KK said no!!! AUBURN CLOTHES AND HAT. So if was. I didn't want you to go but you did, was just bring selfish I guess. I will join every one when it is my time. Love you Jaybird.

Hi P.J. You don't know me but I was the black sheep of the family. Malone was always, always nice to me and I think of him often, thats why I googled him and sadly found this page. I'm so glad he had such a happy life in Ga. with you! I lost my son Maurice in Apr 2021 and I know without a shadow of a doubt that we will see them again and they know how much we lost and how much we grieve. He will be proud of the service and the tribute video. I'm glad I got to see his face again as he favors my brother Mike Jay. Peace and love from Fl. June Jay

Jay was the closest thing to a father that I could have ever known! He was also the best man I've ever met. He has always been there for me and my mother and will be loved and missed forever! Give Jordan a hug for me "Jaybird"!

I have known Malone Jay for many years. We used to go to Auburn Football games. He was such a kind and gentle man. I will miss him, and knowing that he has left us. RIP, my friend.
