Kevin Cunningham, a person with great compassion and love, he never hesitated to lend a helping hand or support to anyone. Kevin loves to sing and play guitar, he was well known for that at EGO. He also had this thing for sushi therefore there was no Japanese restaurant that escape his sight. He was there for me during my marriage and after my divorce. He so loves his family and friends, especially his wife Christina and Twin Brother Kenneth, he never stops talking about them that I feel like I know everything about them. His lastest tattoo will forever make me wonder it's stuck in my head, but that's Kevin alright he stands out and is extremely confident. Kevin is probably the only male to see me cry, and we both hold each other's secrets, sometimes I get on to him about advertising his at work. I know he loves his daughters very much as well and his niece, they were the second most talked about. Even thou Kevin was a social butterfly, he was selective in who he chose to trust. I am happy to know he had a life well lived and explored. This is not good bye, I will see you later Brother, Love John-Luke.
