“ Mrs. Clara Smith was the embodiment of grace, elegance, and unwavering kindness. I had the privilege and honor of meeting her and the entire “Smith “ family over 15 years ago. Mrs. Smith and family represent the best of the “human spirit”. My life changed forever after meeting this family led by the Matriarch, Mrs. Clara Smith. Her indomitable spirit and “presence” was felt each time I would speak with her. I considered her a dear friend and I loved her deeply. It has been said that “prayer is the key to the kingdom and faith unlocks the door. Mrs. Clara Smith’s faith was as strong as a tidal wave. She is surely in heaven, proudly looking down on all of us. My life has been enriched by having her “be a part of it.” I would like to extend my deepest condolences and sympathies to the entire Smith family. May you Rest In Peace.

“ My Aunt Clara was my grandfather’s beautiful baby sister. I don’t remember a time seeing her that she did not have a smile on her face or laughing about something. I have so many precious memories, too many to mention, but I can say this... she was loved by many and will be missed. This is, however, but a temporary separation. We will see you soon, Aunt Clara.

“ Clara Smith was my mother Joyce’ sister. I loved Aunt Clara very much. She was a great lady. I remember as a child going to their house. She was a great cook! I always enjoyed when she came to Grandmas house so I could see her. She was full of wisdom and love.
When Uncle Arthur passed I would call her on the phone often. She always enjoyed Reminiscing. She missed her husband so much. I am thankful I saved a voicemail of her precious. She was always kind to me
I can hear her say “I love you hun”. Until we meet again. I will miss you and always love you.

“ To my dear friend Clara,

At the age of 20 I started to attend Riverdale Church of God. As I started to attend me and Sister Smith became good friends and as time went on we became even closer. I found out she liked to walked and we would walk 3-4 times a week for years. We would share and talk about our children and family. We had wonderful times on those walks. She was a wonderful and true friend, and Pastor’s wife. She will surely be missed by all.

“ This has been a crazy 11 days, filled with up's and down's, emotions, loss and void. I know that my mom is in a better place, joining my dad and all the others that have gone before her. I am so thankful for her incredible 92 ½ years and the impact she has had on my life and to the lives of so many others. It's not easy being a minister's wife for 55 years, while raising 3 children and being a school teacher for 30 years as well. Love was her first name, patience her middle and compassion her last. I am overwhelmingly glad for the 3 years we have been privileged that she has lived with us in Miami. And even in bad situations as this virus, I cannot thank God enough for the 10 weeks working from home where I was with her daily. Having breakfast, lunch breaks and coffee on the patio, evenings of TV, movies and talk. With every bad situation good can come forth and for this I am extremely thankful. She was an incredible mom, grandmother, great grandmother, prayer warrior, example, mentor, friend and I thank God daily that I could call her mom. One day we will all meet again. I love you mom!

“ When I first met Sister Smith I was visiting Riverdale Church of God with my soon to be husband, Donald Dyche. She and Bro. Smith accepted me immediately as if I had always been there. They didn't know that I was a little Baptist girl who had never seen people run the aisles or heard people speak in a strange language that I couldn't understand. But, after I visited a few more times I almost understood what was going on. Now I feel as though I've always been a part of all that praise and worship stuff. Sister Smith always treated me with love and kindness and for that I am most thankful! I will miss seeing her but, I know that one day we will be reunited with her and our loved ones that have gone on before us!

“ Sister smith will be missed by all of your family and her friends, she was a joy to be around and Dianne and I shall miss her although we only knew her a short time. She always reminded us that she was a go go girl. She is now in her heavenly home United with her husband and all her family and friends that went before her. She is now shouting Hallelujahs for an eternity.

“ There was nothing like hearing her laugh. She would bring you in close to her to “whisper” with her hand over her mouth before laughing and patting you on the shoulder. She loved Arthur Smith her husband, aka my “Papa”, Amarige perfume, Evian water, time with her family, statement jewelry, having her hair and nails done, “going on a drive”, “a good movie”, and just being out and about. She loved a “white chocolate mocha” (sometimes she would laugh and say “mocho”), a fish sandwich from McDonald’s, and a PayDay bar. Riverdale was her home for so many years and where she kept so many grandchildren over for sleepovers and then would make them “grandmothers toast” in the morning. She was such a beautiful person inside and out. I will miss her so.

“ Clara's cheese biscuits would melt in your mouth! I have many happy memories of spending time with her and Arthur at their home in Riverdale. May God comfort you in the loss of your Mom/Grandmother.
