“ Damon was always a smiling, gentle young man, the nephew of my daughter-in-law, Kim Blackstone. Quiet and kind, he always offered a hug and a chat. He was much-loved, and he will be missed terribly. My heart goes out to his loving mother, Rhonda Moon, his Me-maw, Jo Davis and those of us who are extended family. Prayers for solace continue.

“ Damon was one of the best friends anyone could ask for; always caring, always generous, always ready with a joke or a song. He was a Mountain of a man, but he needed to be to carry his enormous heart. He is so very loved, and will be so very missed.

Rest in peace, my friend, my brother, my Mountain - your pain is gone, your watch is done. I love you, Big Guy, and will hold you in my heart forever... and I am CERTAIN you'll be there waiting for me at the Pearly Gates when my time comes as well.

Excelsior, good sir, 'til we meet again in whatever Life holds for us after this world.
