“ I only met Alex a few times. But he made a lasting impression. He was personable and sweet. He smiled alot. A very endearing young man. More than that, I witnessed the huge impact that he had on my son and the other Chi Phi brothers. They talked of his sense of humor, his humbleness, and his unbelievable positivity even during the toughest times. His fight and his courage were an inspiration. They also spoke of Kaycee's grace and strength, as well as Alex's wonderful family and hometown friends.

Please accept my sincere condolences to all of those who were closest to Alex and are missing him today. Please know that his memory, his positive impact, will live on in the hearts and minds of his Brothers and other friends within the UWG community. He will forever remain an inspiration. Never forgotten.

“ Melanie and Tom, so incredibly sorry to hear about Alex. Please know that Allison & I have your entire family in our thoughts and prays right now. I wish we had some magic words to make it all better, but there never seem to be any.

In the past when I had the pleasure of meeting Alex at the office a couple of times (with Melanie) I remember thinking how very pleasant, respectful he was, and how well he handled himself. A really impressive young man.

We know he is now in God's loving arms and is safe and well again. God is truly great.

“ Alex was a wonderful, kind, thoughtful and handsome young man, full of life. He made others smile and brought such joy to everyone who knew him! He spent time at my home in high school with my daughter and other friends; we loved being in his company. His life, and the way he treated others is a testimony to his family and their commitment and love for those they knew.

My deepest, heartfelt prayers of a supernatural comfort and peace continue for you all. We love you Alex. We will see you again in heaven honey. <3

“ I had the pleasure of meeting this young man one summer at our house. He was very polite, well mannered, and had a wonderful smile. He will be missed by all his friends and of course all of his family. The heavens sure gained a wonderful angel to watch over all of us.
