“ When I first heard, I couldnt believe it had really happened... especially after just talking to you not even a few days before & you sounded great!! Weve been friends for nearly 20 years, so I often looked to you as an older brother; even despite having lost touch with you for a few years. Ill sorely miss the good, analytical conversations we always had, & everything about you that made you... well... you. I have few who I can say Id deeply mourn for, but I will sorely miss you, my old friend & bro!!
