“ As far back as memory serves, there was Alice in our lives. As a small child I remember her and Gail together and there was always laughter. For years I thought she was a relative. Alice displayed a beauty all her own. Always vibrant and alive. One of my favorite people in life. My prayers continue for the family of this wonderful lady.

“ This dear lady was one of the very first I met at PTC Christian Church when I moved to Georgia from Mississippi. Funny, absolutely delightful, this woman was always amazing, be it fixing goodies for Women's Council meetings, setting up church dinners, decorating, helping out with nursery and children's church. Much love to your beloved family Ms Alice.

We just learned of Alice's death. What a sweet and beautiful woman. She touched so many lives with her singing, a gift from God. Each Easter, I always wanted to hear Alice sing Holy City again. She was a treasure and will be missed by so many. God Bless the entire family, especially John who loved her more than 60 years.
