“ I’LL SEE YA

*You moved into the invisible space where our eyes see you no more,
As the beauty of your living and giving sustains our very core.
Peaceful is your living now in the presence of God’s grace,
As memories of you comfort us as we continue our earthly pace.
At times things come upon us, comforting as the ocean breeze,
It’s probably the Spirit of you touching to help the heartache ease.
You made your mark upon the earth as only you could do,
Fulfilling your part in creating what is kind, honorable and true.
I’ll see ya again I know as I remember your powerful face.
The important thing is I’ll see you again at the end of life’s race.
I’ll see you when I see you is an interesting cliché
I prefer to see you in God loving presence one beautiful day.
Be blessed, E. Shuemake Stokes*

“ Dear Family,

May Jehovah God comfort you during this time of loss. Though there may be little that can be said or done to ease your pain, may you find comfort in knowing that many care and sympathize with your sadness. Always know that Jehovah God is with you to strengthen and guide you. May your trust in his promise of a resurrection bring you peace. – Acts 24:15

“ I am very sorry about your dear loss. When death strikes, everything seems so final. But our Loving God, Jehovah promises that soon this great enemy of mankind will be destroyed forever, and our loved ones will live again (1 Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 26:19)! May these thrilling promises soothe your hearts in the days ahead.

“ Dear Alice, I know that we only met maybe 6 or 7 years ago, but it seemed like we have known each other for ages.

You were such fun to be with, just to talk and hear of all of your experiences. You always had a smile on your face, and I am sure there were times when you had pain also, but we never knew that. It was through your brother Max that we first met you. Max had been working for us for quite a while; and he was just part of our family. On holidays our older children and grandchildren would tell us "dont forget to bring Max so we can play. And he was such a kid at heart. He could entertain the kids for long periods of time. But of course, there was the issue of Stanley and Max too! They grew to be so close that everyone in our neighborhood thought they were brothers. Where one was the other was not far behind. Always helping each other and arguring the whole time. Max and Stanley are very close, and he is very much a part of our family. If Max it not there our grandchildren get upset. To all of you family, our hearts are broken for you because we know how much Alice meant to each of you and was like the motherly family host of your family. We know that she loved each one of you with her whole heart and wanted the best life has for you. I know she will be missed greatly; but please remember all of those special memories that you put away for this kind of time. When you are sad and depressed take those memories out and laugh and cry; that will be medicine that Alice had saved up for you. And be so thankful that each of you had Alice for a long time to laugh with, talk with, cry with and most of all to learn from her how important family meant to her. She told me many times how much she loved all of you and that she was a much better person for having each of you in her life. She loved with her whole heart. To Max, she loved you so very much and stayed worried about you, but she taught you how to survive life, to live a good life, and most of all how to treat people and care for the less-fortunate ones. You are going to be fine on earth now, because you have a wonderful, loving angel looking after you all the time, and you never forget that. Her love for you will live on in your heart and her heart forver by keeping all of the memories alive for ever. All of the Circle M crew are asking about you; Greg(family), Danny, Mr.

Brown, and of course

Stanley, Mandy, Kale, Shannon, WilCecily, Shantley, Emily, and Stanley's mama "mawmaw" sellers.

And all of each of their family members are thinking of you to. And of course my heart is breaking for you now, because not many years I lost my Mama and I hurt so bad for anyone that loses a loved one. Hang in there hard, you know that we all love you and are here at home for you. Be strong and remember that Alice was strong and tough and she taught you to be also. Like I said we didn't know her long, but long enough to know what kind of person she was and it would take a lot of words to describe her. But I know that one of her most loving and caring attributes was her family and her brother "Max". So just always know that she loved all of you! Please know that all of you are in our prayers, and we pray for the Lord above to lift you all up and give you the strength to get through these hard times. Wish Stanley and I could be there with all of you, but it is just not possible with our granddaughter "Kale" duties. Please let us know if we can do anything at all for any of you. The whole Circle M Trucking Co. and their families are feeling your pain and we are all saying silent prayers for each of you. The Lord will give all of you the strength you need for this very hard time in your lives now.

Our Love and Prayers to all of you!!

“ To my beloved most loving Grandmother, the queen of my life, the dancing queen! I cant believe you are gone, I wasnt ready to lose you yet, but I know now you are my guardian angel just like Papa Ace! You always had a smile on your face every time I saw you. “ My deepest sympathy to all of Alices family, but especially to Beth. I am blessed to have known Alice, and to have danced, traveled, and cruised with her. She was an inspiration to all of us - such a loving, caring person and so full of optimism. She was a person who would do anything for a friend or someone in need. I just wish there were more we could have done for her.

“ All your many friends are greatly saddened in letting you go. We deeply admire you for having fought the long painful battle.

We are left with fond memories of seeing you grace the many dance floor in Atlanta and the happiness that competing with Wayne ... and winning ... enriched your life... and ours.

We are forever indebted for your many contributions to the survival and growth of ballroom dancing as we know it. Ballroom dancing thrived because of your dedication in making Atlanta an even better place.

Your many admirers at After Hours and Solos greatly appreciate your contribution as president and board member ...you always brought style and class... then rolled up your sleeves and got the job done! You are a Class Act!

We miss you, but know that you are in a better place and are at peace.

With much admiration and love,
