“ I did not know Allen personally, only as my Face Book friend, but he became special as he and I seem to share common interests and values. From our shared comments I came to know him as a good man. I know of nothing better for a man to be than a "good" man. May God give his soul rest as Heaven welcomes him.

“ Last time I talked to Allen a couple of months ago we were talking about having a teacher in the family. He told me that Bonnie made him take typing and it was one of the best classes he took in the long run. He said it should have been a required class for all students. He was surprised that they teach it in Elem. School as part of computer class. We are going to miss you Allen. Sending prayers of comfort for all of his family.
