Mr. Allen Camp Hodges, 83, long time East Point resident passed away on June 10, 2010. He is survived by his devoted wife of 62 years, Carolyn Rantin Hodges; sons, Dennis Hodges of Atlanta and Greg Hodges of Richmond, Virginia, as well as granddaughters, Elisabeth Johnson and Amanda Hodges of Richmond, and two great-granddaughters. Allen was born and raised in Fairburn, graduating from Campbell of Fairburn High School in 1944 and was a WWII veteran, having served in Germany with the 381st Military Police Battalion. He and Carolyn were long time members of the former Dogwood Hills Baptist Church, and were also members of the East Point Historical Society. Allen loved to spend time working outdoors and each year grew a large vegetable garden, the bounty from which he shared with friends and neighbors.
