“ I have lost a real GOOD and CLOSE FREIND. Wayne was just like a BIG BROTHER to me. I will never forgetthe first trip I make with Wayne at Brown Transort. It was like something just CLick between the two of. This lead too many of YEARS of us ridding together as a TEAM. Wayne had a MANY FRIENDS in the trucking life for everyone though so much of him. Wayne as a person and a GOOD FREIND of mine I am surely going to MISS.

“ I only met Wayne about 9 years ago when we became next door neighbors, but over those 9 years, we developed a friendship. Wayne was one of the best neighbors I've ever had. We both shared a passion of having a yard that looked good, and kind of had a friendly competition for that. When it was time to mow grass, if I mowed my yard before Wayne mowed his, then the next day he would mow his, and vice-versa. Sometimes we would both be mowing at the same time, and when it was time for a break, we would pull our riding mowers under the big oak in the shade and sit and talk for a while. That was our gathering spot. Wayne hated having to deal with the leaves, but he loved that shade. Nearly every time we talked, he would start talking about his grand-daughters and great grand-kids, they were what kept him going after Jean went Home. Now, he's with her, I'll miss our little conversations, and know that all of his family will miss him tremendously. Wayne was truly a great guy, and I'm very proud to have been able to call him "friend".

“ I had the pleasure of being Wayne's cousin and was blessed to have gone to church with him and our cousin Edward Thompson at Southside Baptist for about a year. I spent many weekends with Wayne's mother my Aunt Daisy when I was a kid along with his sister Betty and brother Betty. Aunt Daisy and Uncle Dana had three fine children and I am happy to call them "MY FAMNILY". I am going to miss Wayne so much. God bless you Anthony, Donna and your girls. Just know you all are in my prayers. Love, Carole Bryan (Daughter of Grace Bentley Pealor)
