“ Allen was a Good Friend and a wonderful Christian Example to many! My first time being around him was when asked at FCBC to serve on the Personnel Committee. He smiled and asked would I be the chairman and without me saying anything, shook my hand and left the committee! He'd had enough! He was the main organiser for the Kingdom Builders at FC and I always enjoyed going with him and working where ever he ask me to. Always ready with advice, he would listen to what ever I had to say! I will truly miss his caring attitude and Christian Witness! RIP Allen, my Friend!

“ To the Robertson's, I am sorry for your loss and you are in my thoughts and prayers. At a time I was very stressed moving my mother into WaterCrest and due to Covid, I could not go into building with movers. Mr. Robertson sat on his porch and talked with me and kept me company. He was so kind and told some great stories. I was able to get through a stressful day due to his kindness and then I would often see him sitting outside when the weather was nice and we would talk and wave and smile. Only later did I realize that he was related to Brent and Mona who I knew as I saw them sitting outside talking to him one day! It truly is a small world. He was a blessing to a stranger and I will always remember his kindness and pass it on. Michele Parker

“ *Allen and my husband Buddy were the best of friends since their teen years. We traveled through life together, both as friends and travel partners. Oh the fun trips we shared, always remember Mt. Washington!
No better friend to be found anywhere. Love to the family and I will be thinking of you and holding you close in the coming days.
Love, Jane*

Jane Twilley - January 23, 2021 at 11:42 AM

We love you Mrs Twilley!! Daddy loved you and Buddy - what wonderful memories you shared. I hope they had a fabulous homecoming in heaven

Tammy Troutman - January 23, 2021 at 02:54 PM

Thanks Mrs. Twilley, we were so fortunate to be able to say our goodbyes and related many fond memories of your time together with Dad and Mom. One of our many thoughts and conversations were he would get to see Buddy again soon. Your family and relationship with ours was a special one.

“ Allen was a special friend. We shared the back row in our Sunday School for years and made comments when necessary; Also a number of Church building programs "pulling wires". I will miss him very much and will be remembering family. We will be sending Gideon Bibles in his honor. Bud and Karen Eller

“ Allen was a great Christian friend of mine during my years at Flat Creek Baptist Church. He had a special way of making me feel better every time we had a conversation. Any time that I shared a problem or challenge with him, he found a way to make it an opportunity. He was a special man. Gary Teal
