Death Unnoticed

© Harold Daigle

Published on November 23, 2016

*Out there in the Milky Way,
Where a billion stars call home,
When you look really close,
You'll see that each is alone.*

*No one less important
When lighting the evening skies,
Yet very few take notice
When one of them dies.*

*A black hole is created;
A dark shadow is cast,
And only those who are closest
Fear how long this will last.*

*The void that has been left there
Seems to draw all within.
Only time has the power to
Help the light shine again.*

“ Amanda,
Goodbye is not forever...God said your work here on Earth was done....we will truly miss you. We will pray for your family, especially those precious babies and your husband as they grieve and as they go through life wondering why you, why God had to take you. We will pray that they understand that this is not our forever home, but where you are is, and one day we will all be together again. Until that day, we know that we have a special angel watching over us. Rest easy in Jesus's arms!
