“ It’s funny I’m Amanda’s uncle by two years. I remember a lot when we were kids. This one time keep running in my head I had to of been 8 Mandy 6. I was a rocker I used to rock back and forth and this one time Amanda was mocking me and we began to fight and broke something of my mothers. I remember her coming down the hall and chasing us and me and Amanda running and laughing at her.. small but that’s what I remember when I think of my niece. Regardless of where life took us we were always family. I know you’re in a better place and there’s a lot of family and friends that will always miss you and love you. FLY HIGH Mandy LOV U...

“ This sweet girl was taken away way to soon! Her children will miss her deeply! She had a hard life I pray now that her eternal life will be peaceful! I loved her very much, we talked a while back for several hours on the phone, life is always so busy and it seems we always think there will be plenty of time to catch up until there isn't! She made me a utensil container with the words Aunt Susan's kitchen on it! I will cherish it for the rest of my life! I love you sweet girl until we see each other again! Your Aunt Susan,
