“ Though we didn't personally know Jill, her mom & dad, aunts & uncles are dear friends of ours. After her service today, I feel like I know her and her entire family. Our hearts go out to all of you at this time, and we are so thankful for the bond and love that all of you share. . . and then, share with others. Praying for your comfort and thankful that you know the One who can accomplish that.
Sincerely and in His love,

“ My sweet, cute little cousin that I used to baby sit. We grew up & went our separate ways, but we're always connected through Jesus Christ & family. I'm forever grateful that we reconnected socially on Facebook. We were battling cancer at the same time & were praying for each other's healing. We all wanted you on this earth for many more years, but this wasn't God's will. I do not weep for you, Jill, because I know where you are & Who you're with. You are healed now, in every way, & living life like us on earth have never known. And for all of us who belong to Jesus, we have so much more of a future with you, than we do a past. Jill, I just finished my treatments & I am going to try my best to do all I can to stay healthy & to get stronger. Your fight & amazing attitude gave me strength & hope. Thank you for your courageous & godly example. Love you, sweet cousin. Until we meet again... ❤️

“ My heart is so heavy from the news of Jill's passing. Jill was my very first best friend!!! We met many, many years ago at daycare. We were maybe 4 or 5 years old. We were inseparable! We enjoyed many years of spending the night together, playing house, dancing, singing, riding bikes and hot wheels, having fun on the slip-n-slide, and learning early what a true friendship was all about! We drifted apart over the years as our families moved away, and we grew into our own lives. We recently reconnected. I'm so thankful we found each other! You will be greatly missed here on Earth, but I know you are with Jesus, and I WILL see you again one day!

Much love,

“ Almost 4 yrs ago I came to a job interview with you , I was looking for a career change and ended up with the very best boss anyone could ever ask for , a mentor that has given me a different look on life, a hero, and most of all an amazing friendship that you dont find very often. You always kept me laughing. I have missed you so much and will miss you so much more . This is only a temporary goodbye my sweet friend . I will see you one day again. The heavens have gained a beautiful angel, you have been made new again . TEAM JILL aka Gill.. I love you

“ My heart goes out to you. Jill was a beautiful person inside and out. She worked with a nursing group, that rented a building from us. She was always a delight to see. Then when my late husband, Harry was very sick, with cancer, she helped me get everything I needed. I grew up with her mom and dad, never realized, she was their daughter. Heaven has gained a beautiful angel, who helped so many. 🙏
