“ To the Stephenson Family:

Sorry to hear of the death of your wife. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your wife can be most difficult to bear. That pain is not necessarily erased by being told that your wife is up in heaven. The Bible, however, holds out a much different hope. The scriptures indicate that it is possible to be reunited with your wife in the near future, not in an unknown heaven, but right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions. (Please read John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:9-11,29) If your heart yearns to see your wife again, Jehovah's Witnesses will gladly assist you to learn how you can make this sure hope your very own. Why not contact them at www.watchtower.org.

It's is so beautiful that this hope is most definitely "sure his very own". Right now. Without anyone else having to tell him otherwise or without JW.

“ Gale, Billy & Abby, My deepest sympathy to you all. I know I am no longer a part of your family but Gary and I have remained friends and he told me of your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. Parents don't expect to bury their child, it's not the way it is supposed to be. But use your faith to get through this and know you have your own beautiful angel in heaven to watch over you all forever. She was a sweet young girl when I last saw her and I know she was a beautiful young woman. Take comfort in your memories until you meet her one day again in heaven.

“ *Dear Gale and Billy,
I am so sorry to hear about Amy. I haven't seen Amy in a long time since we moved away from Fairburn, but we were good friends in school and she was so good to me when I first moved to Fairburn when we were only in 6th grade. I'm so sad to hear this news. Know that you and your family will be in my prayers.*
