“ I am so thankful for the most recent visit with Sherry and Drew at my house in Alabama. It was good to see that after several years the things I loved most about Drew were still true. He still had that remarkable sense of humor, great intelligence, humble spirit, loving heart, and desire to encourage other people. It didn't even seem that time had passed. That visit will always be a most treasured memory to me. Love and sympathy to all the family.

“ The first time I met Drew was the week before my wedding. I had heard so many things about him from my husband who met him on WOW many years before. He made the trek all the way from Georgia to Utah to be in our wedding. I remember being so impressed with him, the way he presented himself and how kind he was. I will always be grateful for him and his friendship and influence he had on my husband. We lost a great friend, but his memory will live on.

Our deepest condolences to you, Holly, and the Arno family. Thank you for sharing him with us!

*Much Love,
Karissa (Micah and Jaxton) Clark*
