“ I found out today a that my dear friend Andrew has passed away. We became friends in the oddest but amusing way and I had noticed a silence and an echo of sorts on Facebook where his comedic comments or GIFS were left that would always make me smile and laugh. He was a great listener as I was for him. I am going to miss him as will the rest of whom he touched. May you always have peace in your mind and love in your soul. I would love to be in touch with a part of his family because he was like family to me.

“ My Condolences to the Hardy Family . The Lord allowed me to spend time with Andy on a daily bases the last five years of his life, He went to church with me, shopping with me , and prayed with me. He was a believer , he prayed everyday, and read from his bible everyday. We , of course, believed in different life styles, but that is our God Given right. I thank God , that he allowed me the opportunity to spend so very much time with Andy on this Earth. May he Rest In Peace 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏

Paul, I feel at a loss for words when there is a greater loss of a beautiful soul amongst you. Ecclesiastes 3:1-13 comes to mind.... To every thing there is a season. Jennifer “ I'll never forget the Christmas of 2000 at grandma's house on Creekwood. I was 4 and my brother was 3 and we were standing in the kitchen with Andy. He threw a broom at us and told us to "get a job." I'll never forget you Uncle Andy, Rest In Peace ☐
