It was in a small chapel North of Atlanta in

My daughter Kim Davis was their photographer
I still have the picture of just the two of them on my desk
Andy was a lot of fun to be around
He made me laugh
I will always have fond memories of him 😍*

“ ((((((((-hugs-))))))) My deepest condolences.

May the memories you cherish bring immense comfort to your hearts.

Prayers for all.

As our neighbor for over 27-years, too many memories to share. :) How can I describe an amazing neighbor yet more importantly - an amazing friend. Always willing to help us. Always ready with his 1,000 watt smile & funny jokes. His prized red truck is a reminder of the special man Andy was - yet still is within our hearts. Seeing Andy's red truck parked outside makes me think he's home. Guess Andy really is now at "home". Until we see each other in Eternity brother. God bless you!! <><

“ Mr. Andy was everything you could hope for in a neighbor - always a smiling face, always willing to offer a helping hand, and always treated us kids in the neighborhood like we were his own nieces and nephews in one big family. His snappy wit and good ol' country-raised wisdom will be sorely missed. Rest in peace, Unk.

Anthony was my next door neighbor during my childhood, we were in Boy Scouts together and rode the same school bus. Our families even went on vacations together. I regret that we lost contact as we grew older. In our childhood he was like a brother. He had the longest perfect attendance record for Sunday School if anyone in our Church.

We have so many great memories with this guy. He made the team at Williams Body Works complete. Wonderful person that has been missed since New Years.

My deepest sympathy to the family. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I only saw him 2 times, but that time left a wonderful impression of him, such a friendly welcoming Man. And the love for his family and home was so obvious! May you feel God's grace, comfort, strength and Love in the coming days.

Tina, my heart breaks for your immense loss and I pray for comfort for you and your family. Although I've never met Andy, I remember you talking about him with such love and devotion and always referring to him as "my Andy". If he meant that much to you, I know he was indeed a special man. Much love to you, my friend
