“ Lord Jesus YOU have called another Angel home. Angie, I never met you, but I always felt that we had alot in common. Sandy and Kris was Blessed to have you as their Mother. In so many ways Mother's are special people. In a million different ways And merit loving compliments And many words of praise, For a mother's aspiration Is for her family's success, To make the family proud of her. And bring them happiness. And like our heavenly Father, She's a patient, loving guide, Someone we can count on To be always on our side. Rest in peace my dear sister in Christ.

“ I am so torn with the death of my awesome cousin. I am torn with my fathers death and her Uncle just and hour and a half away from each other. He loved her and she loved him, so please know that our love and thoughts are with family. May God give you the strength to continue your journey and know you will be always followed by your loved ones who have expired from this world. Angie, you know I love you and I will be right behind you, because being on earth is a blink and quickly we will be removed from this cruel world. Love to you Husband, children, grand-children. And so much love goes out to my Uncle Sonny may God lift you through this horrible, but glorious passing. She is in such a happy place.
