“ Angie, your smile and humor will be missed, but we are happy that you are now home with the Lord and we know you are in the best hands. You have touched the lives of so many...so your memory lives on in the hearts of all that have been blessed to know you. Until we meet again, much love, sweet lady.

“ Angela was a wonderful inspiration to the Pre-k students that she worked with down through the years. We feel blessed to have had her as a valuable, nurturing and loving educator.

We will miss her dearly.

“ Our family has been blessed to have known Angie for over forty years. Over thirty years ago, Angie and Buz introduced us and we will forever be in their debt. We have so many fond memories of spending many days in the company of Angie and was blessed to witness the amount of love and devotion she had toward her family. Always welcomed into her home and always welcomed at her table. What an amazing daughter, sister, aunt, wife, mother, grandmother and steward. Always happy, always with a smile, what a wonderful friend. We will truly miss her. Welcome home Angie. Your job here on earth was well done!

“ We had the pleasure of Miss Angie teaching our two younger girls in pre-k. Baylie, two years ago, and Emylie, this year. Emylie was a little sad that she was not able to hug Miss Angie at the Pre-K awards day. She does understand that she still was sick and couldn't come that day. I know they both really loved her and they will miss her greatly. Children always have a way of understanding so much better than we can. We know she is in God's care and she is truly one of God's angels. We'll miss you. God Bless your family.

“ Buz and Angie were neighbors of my late husband, Elmer, and I for several years in Riverdale. They were the best!! Fun-loving, hard-working, positive people. I can't remember Angie ever not having a beautiful smile on her face. A truly beautiful person, inside and out. I have lost a good friend, and Heaven has gained an angel.
