“ Although I never met Angie in person, I did have the pleasure of meeting her via a Facebook chat. She randomly saw a Facebook request to care for a hospice blind dog. She opened her home and heart to care for Princess. I volunteer with the rescue group BullyWag and had watched Princess the night before she went to stay with Angie. I enjoyed hearing updates about Princess and could easily tell how big Angie's heart was. She was a very special person. Her death was a shock to all of us. She will be greatly missed. There is a special place for her in Heaven.

“ Although I hadn't known Ms. Angie long, I felt we'd been lifelong friends.

With a such a kind and loving heart, Angie helped me realize there are still angels on earth. She opened her heart and home to Bullywag, Inc. Animal Rescue as a sweet senior dog that needed to feel the warm loving human touch, love and compassion came into the rescue. She committed to loving that broken puppy dog of 18 years until she crossed the rainbow bridge and Angie and Walt took care of her as if they'd had her for a lifetime. I am forever grateful to Angie for shining her light my way. She was and is a Beautiful, Beautiful Soul.

“ I knew Angie through her involvement with her brother and the Palmetto Masonic Lodge #74 in Palmetto. Her brother Bryan is and her father Sam was very much a part of the Lodge and as such, she attended almost all of the family events we held and most of our fundraisers as well as many of those at Campbellton Lodge #76.

Her presence at our future events will certainly be noted as she will be missed by all.

May she rest in Peace!
