“ Prayers for you Mr. Mack. I loved this sweet lady. What a blessing she was to so many children at Flat Creek Baptist church. Her sweet spirit and love for Jesus ministered to all of us. Praying for the love of your friends and church family to give you comfort and the Love of our sweet Jesus to give you peace. Love you Linda Baxter

“ Anne Martin, the Sweetest Lady I have ever known! Always full of information and advice! Always on top of every situation! Always willing to assist with any project and Loved her kids in her Sunday School Class! My life has been made Much Better because of the influence she made on my Christian Walk! I will forever be indebted to Anne Martin for her encouragement and positive witness! Rest In Peace Sweet Lady!

“ We didn't get to meet Anne before she became ill, but even during her illness she had such a sweet spirit and a precious smile. Others who have known her for years have shared only positive memories of her character and servant spirit. We're looking forward to long conversations with Anne when we get to heaven.
