

Annie Goen Hill

July 26, 1928 - January 16, 2019

Mrs. Annie Goen Hill, 90 passed away January 16, 2019. She was preceded in death by her husband, Guy Franklin Hill and is survived by daughters, Anna Miller and her husband, Donnie of Marietta, Pat Camp and her husband Ron of Roswell, Carol Westbrook and her husband Larry of Marietta, Sharon Fields and her husband Mark of Marietta; son Guy (Butch) Hill and his wife Cindy of Marietta; 10 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren.

Born July 26, 1928 in East Point, GA to Eva Lou Connell and John Thomas Goen Annie was the youngest and sole survivor of nine children. She enjoyed a wonderful childhood with her brothers and sisters. She worked in a bakery during high school with her best friend Gwen, and loved roller skating and going to the beach. Annie graduated from Russell High School and got a job at Ft. Mac in the War Assets Department. She was introduced by a mutual friend to Guy Hill. They fell in love, were married in 1950, and enjoyed 53 years together. They worked to build a successful business while raising a family and contributing to their community through public service. When her husband got into politics Annie became his campaign manager and helped him get elected to the Georgia House of Representatives for five terms. The two went on Friendship Force and Chamber of Commerce trips, enjoyed cruises, traveled the world and attended Ronald Reagan's presidential inauguration. Annie was an avid bowler and was a member of the Bola Bears who were league champions in 1961-62. She belonged to and was an active member for many years of the East Point Woman's Club. Recently Annie was honored by the South Fulton Republican Women's Club as their oldest living member and was also the recipient of their Chairman's Award, their highest honor.

Writing was always an important part of Annie's life. Her brother J. T. Goen inspired her to follow this dream and she carried a pad and pen with her all her life. At 80 Annie had a children's book published from an award-winning story she had written that she shared with family and friends.

Annie was a long time member of Southwest Christian Church and maintained many friendships that lasted a lifetime. She loved hats and wore them to church every Sunday.

At Arbor Terrace where she spent the last year Annie took a real interest in the residents and staff. She encouraged and inspired those around her until her final breath. Her family feels blessed to have had the opportunity to call this amazing woman mother, grandmother, great grandmother and friend for so many years.

A funeral service will be held Monday, January 21, 2019 at 11:30 am at Southwest Christian Church, 3836 US Hwy 29N, Newnan, GA 30265. Interment will be at 2:30 p.m. at Concord Baptist Church Cemetery in Temple, GA. Those wishing may sign the online guestbook at www.parrottfuneralhome.com. “ Offering condolences for the loss of Ms. Hill and praying that God’s promise to swallow up death forever and wipe away the tears from all faces will provide a measure of comfort for your family. (Isaiah 25:8) Warm Regards, Kay

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I too know the sting of death. The memories of good times will carry you thru these sad days. I hope that you can surround yourself with family and those who can build you up with the comfort you need. There is the best support found in God's word. Please read Isaiah 25:8. Death will soon be a thing of the past and there will be no more tears. Take care of yourself and let the scriptures fill you with hope and promise.

“ I never got to know you but I know your daughter and you had to be an angel because of how I see Pat. May heaven rejoice with another saint there.

“ I am so sorry that a medical procedure will keep me from helping to celebrate the life well lived on Mrs. Hill. Such a consummate Christian lady and mother! She was always so encouraging and kind, such a lady in her dress, manner, and speech. She left a legacy of faith, service, and love. I know the family will grieve, but not as "those who have no hope." She is reunited with her dear Guy even though the ladies of Southwest and her family will miss her.

“ Oh how I will miss seeing this wonderful lady with her special hats, beautiful smile and warm hugs! Annie was a very special friend and one of a group of precious ladies that chose to sit at my tables when we had a ladies luncheon at church. She always wrote notes of thanks and every time I sent her a note of encouragement she wrote back with words of encouragement for me! She and husband, Guy, were supporters and encouragers of the SWCC choir for many, many years. Rest in peace my sweet friend. I will be looking for you when it is my time to cross over! With love, Debbie Hammond

“ Heaven truly gained an angel with our special friend Ms, Annie who will be sorely missed by so many. She touched the hearts and lives of us all and her beautiful memory will forever live on in our hearts forever. We, like her beautiful family, will cherish the fun times, love and laughter shared with this “one of a kind” special friend. Rest In Peace Annie until we meet again that one sweet day! We love you, Eloise Cheely and Tammy

“"Guy and Ann" were more than a "couple;" they were a "team." Through their commitment to Christ and the Church; through their involvement in the community and government they "let their light shine" and give Glory to God and blessing to all who came under their influence. The Goen family home at the corner of Church St. & Taylor Ave. was familiar to me in my walking to and from "the car line" and East Point Christian Church, where our lives first intersected. Guy hired my late wife, Ruth Ann, to host the South Fulton Republican office on Hwy 138, near our home at Christian City. We await our reunion at the Place Jesus went to prepare for us and all who responded to His love in providing our Redemption. Sweet memories! - Bob Tyler
