“ I will miss Tony especially on Wednesday nights he always kept me laughing his quick wit and sharp come backs always cracked me up and there is nothing like waiting to bowl and having pieces of salt water taffy whizzing by my head and looking up and seeing Tony with that big shit eating grin and flipping me off I will miss him terribly

“ Tony was the most kind and generous man. We met and became close and were dating. He was funny and loved his family very much. Had many friends who cared about him.
He took me on adventures I had never experienced. We loved each other very much and my heart is broken. However he's in no more pain and in gods loving arms now.
I will hold his loving memory in my heart forever.

“ I’m saddened to hear of Tony’s passing. For all the many years I was involved in funeral service, Tony was my rock of dependability. If he committed to a plan, one could take it to the bank. Thirty plus years of almost daily conversations made him more than a voice on the phone. The plus side balanced on the days when he would deliver and we could solve a few world problems face to face. Take your rest. my friend. You have earned it.

I am sad to hear of Tony's passing. I have known him for over 30 as a Funeral Director dealing with Batesville. We often discussed motorcycling and the different events we had attended. He will be missed.
