Elena and Alisha this is Norriette Davis from Bermuda. I used to work with Arthur at the press and I am devastated to hear of his passing. I am sorry I have taken this long to say this but I can't believe it. Arthur was a beautiful individual who brought something special in your life that cannot always be described... He helped me every time I had problems with my computer and was there whenever I needed him. He was so proud of his daughter Alisha and he has every right to be because she definitely had his spirit. Arthur gave me a book for a Christmas gift one year and I read it every morning to help guide me in this life and my thoughts are always to him and the beautiful person he was. My condolences to the family. May he rest he peace with the Father above. Love always Nori

He gave his all and had a genuine love for children of all ages. Truly Uncle Arthur will be a great miss. I wish you continued prayers of comfort at this time. Love and prayers from my parents, Bro. & Sis. Leon James, my sons and I too. From Nikita (James) Euler.

Elena and Alisha, you have my sincerest condolences. Uncle Arthur was well loved by all. A truly great man he was. He was the best Childers story presenter ever!!! Who could forget the story when he said the stove was on 480 degrees?!?? He didn't cook, you did Elena. Looking forward to seeing Uncle Arthur in that great getting up morning. Love, hugs and prayers from Pauletta.

My Dear Sis. Elaina and Alisha,

It is saddening to hear of the loss of your husband and father, our beloved Uncle Arthur. Deepest Condolences to you. I found Brother Arthur Raynor to be a true servant-leader. The impact of his life on others, especially on children - our children during Pathfinders, Sabbath School and Jr. AY - through his gift of Storytelling, will be felt for generations. What a grand reunion that will be, when we reunite at Jesus's second coming! We join you in preparing, working, watching and waiting, Elaina & Alisha. May your extended family be comforted by this hope. Love from Lee, Ryan, Lindsay & I, Rosamund.
