

Barbara GeWinner Carter

April 22, 1925 - February 20, 2017

Barbara GeWinner Carter, age 91, passed away peacefully at her home on February 20, 2017. A native Atlantan born on Miller Avenue in NE Atlanta on April 22, 1925, Barbara was preceded in death by her parents, Mary Lumpkin and Morris West Carter and her beloved sister, Mary Helen Carter. She attended Commercial High School on Pryor Street where she was a member of the high school band playing the snare drums. She furthered her schooling at Harrison-Draughn School of Commerce.

Her business career began in 1945 with the State of Georgia Revenue Department. She continued there for 34 years and was Administrative Assistant to 13 State Revenue Commissioners, beginning with Charles T. Redwine, including T.V. Williams, Nick Chilivis and ending in 1979 with Comm. William Strickland.

After her state service, her interests included her church and her association with Canongate Golf Club. She was Club Champion on several occasions and she and her golf partner were Georgia Senior Champion in 1994.

Barbara was survived by cousins, Sheila Cooper (Phil); Sandra Seymour, Kimberly Seymour, Timothy Seymour all of Cumming, GA; cousin, Jim Mayo of Satsuma, Florida. She was loved dearly by a myriad of friends in her church, her golf pals, and her surrogate family, the entire Merrell Clan. "Sleep well, sweet lady."

A graveside service will be held Sunday, February 26, 2017 at 2 o'clock at Holly Hill Memorial Park with Dr. Steve Batts officiating. Those wishing may

“ I am so sorry about your loss. It is our hope that the thoughts of friends and family, and most important God's promise to reunite you soon again with your loved one, comforts you in the days ahead (Isaiah 26:19; 55:10, 11; Psalm 83:18).
