“ I know you will miss her. I've known your mom for a very long time. My mother (Frances Collins) worked with her forever. I remember your mom coming to the house when she passed away in 1987. I saw her everyday after school at the Old City Hall. Our prayers are with you and your families.

“ Dear family: I started working for Clayton County in the Tax Assessors office when I was 18 years old. Your mom was one of the first people in Forest Park that I dealt with concerning property taxes. She was always very professional and helpful to a young woman just getting started in the business. And believe me I relied on her a lot. I will Always be grateful to her for showing me such kindness and patience. So sorry for your loss of a precious loved one.
