“ I am so sad to hear of Hermann's passing. My family lived on his horse ranch outside of Cumberland when I was young. He showed up one Easter knocking on the door and said that the Easter Bunny had hidden baskets out in the pine trees for my brother and I. To this day I still remember those huge baskets him and his wife Lida had put together, full of every kind of candy a kid could want all in full size candy bars! We were happy happy kids that Easter. I had a lot of firsts with Hermann and on that horse ranch. We got to see horses being born, even a 3 legged one. And Hermann gave us the german shepard, Heidi he had on the property when we moved and he often gave us rides in his Corvette. I have missed him over the years and am truly sorry to his family for your loss.

“ Will always remember Hermann's kindness, compassion, mentoring abilities, and his regard and reverence for others. One of my most memorable times was his phone call to me to tell me how much he thought of my son and to thank me for raising such a wonderful, compassionate young man. May God hold you forever in the palm of His hands. Always remembered.

“ Remembering Hermann as a man who not only appreciated and cultivated the finer things of life, beautiful flowers, pictures, animals (especially horses), but most importantly, people. I'm grateful for the opportunity he extended to me, and will not forget his kindness.
