“ Betty Hannah was a lovely person, very personable with a good sense of humor. She was kind to me as a young mother, and didn't hesitate to laugh at herself when she made a mistake. I enjoyed knowing her at Fairburn Methodist Church. She served her Lord, her church and her community with her heart. Today she is whole and beautiful again in the presence of Jesus. May God bless her family as you celebrate her life and legacy.

“ Betty Hannah was a sweet person, she loved her community, great public servant as Mayor of Fairburn for 26 years and was a good friend that I love and will miss dearly. I loved our afternoon chats on her front porch with Ray. Betty may you rest in peace in the loving hands of God. Abril Montaña
