“ You can’t speak of Betty without including Charles. They loved one another and put their heart and soul into everything they did. Whether it was Church, SCV, or The Masonic Lodge, they rolled up their sleeves and got involved. They never missed an opportunity to help the organization or a friend. No matter the situation, they found some way to bring a smile or laughter to the occasion. Aside from loving one another, they loved their fur babies and family. Most friends quickly became “family.” When Betty had to say goodbye to her beloved Charles, it devastated her. But God loves His children and provided Cindy to help and hold her hand from that time on. Cindy was a true God send for Betty. As we say goodbye to Betty we must remind ourselves that this separation is only temporary. Betty has met our Savior face to face in all of His glory and is strolling around Heaven hand in hand with Charles. Both are pain free, breathing effortlessly and waiting to meet us. We miss them both but each one has their own personal memories of Charles and Betty to cherish...until we meet again...
