“ I certainly have many memories of working with her at Fairburn UMC .
Too many to mention, but wanted to say hello because I will not be able to attend the memorial service. Especially hello to Sherilyn. I taught her in fourth grade,. Marian Johnson

“ I remember the very first time I saw Miss Betty Jean. I was a young girl and Fairburn Methodist Church had hired her as Choir Director. We were remodeling the church and were temporarily meeting at M P Word School. She was a beautiful young woman with the voice of an Angel. My heart is heavy, but I know she's happily singing in the Heavenly choir. May God bless each of you during this difficult time. Teresa Brooks Collins

Sherilyn, Howell and families, I will always remember Betty Jean and Sherwin Tucker, your dear Mom and Dad, with the fondest of memories and the greatest of love. Their love for me as your youth pastor at Fairburn United Methodist Church from 1970 to 1972 and then again when I taught a Bible study in the homes of some of our dear church people from 1976 onwards, I will never forget. They were some of my staunchest supporters. For that I will ever be grateful to God and to them. After your dad died your mom continued to support me in my Paraclete Mission Group work for years as well. She would host me for dinner, with friends from Fairburn, and always loved to hear reports of what God was doing around the world through our ministries. May the Lord bless you and comfort your hearts!
