“ Betty was a wonderful mother and grandmother. I have a memory of her children play-arguing because each one thought they were her favorite. I felt the same. She made me feel loved and like a valued member of the family too. I'm sorry for everyone's loss. I will really miss her.

“ So sorry to hear of Betty's passing. It was always such a pleasure when I got the chance to do her hair and spend time reminiscing about days gone by! I'm glad that you were able to be with her when the Lord called your mom to be with Him. You and the family are in my prayers now and in the days ahead! Sending love and hugs your way!!!

“ My dear precious friend Betty, what a blessing you have been in my life. When I went to work for the State, you were in the Human Resources Office with me filling out all the paperwork they require. I remember wondering which office they would send you to. Low and behold they sent us to the same office and our friendship began right then and there! That was around 1978 and we remained friends through all these years. For the love and encouragement you always showed to me I am most grateful. You will be dearly missed. Love always, Cheryl Neill.

Sincere sympathy to sweet Betty Rose's family. We met Betty at Brookdale Senior Living and enjoyed her friendship further at The Claiborne. She was my official Golden Girl and we talked about each and every episode. I convinced her the Betty White character 'Rose' was actually written after her. We love you Miss Betty and have missed seeing you. ❤️ RIP dear friend; tell the other Betty 'Rose' we said hello. Sandy B and Jean A

“ The times I got to share the most with my Aunt Betty were divided not by years, but decades. First when she was a young mother of two girls (my sweet cousins) and I was a precocious pre-teen and our house was one of the few with a TV and then later when she would accompany me on road trips to visit my Mother, where the conversations always returned to our early years together. They were happy times for us both. No one is ever gone when there are happy memories of time well spent. RIP, Aunt Betty and my wishes to all her family that their good memories help them thru this time.
