

Betty Stinchcomb

July 31, 1932 - March 5, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Betty Stinchcomb, who departed this world on March 5, 2025, at the age of 92. Born on July 31, 1932, she was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and friend to many.

Betty was preceded in death by her devoted husband, Robert Stinchcomb, her cherished parents, Paul and Bertha Chastain, and her son, Ronnie Deyton. She leaves behind a legacy of love and warmth, and will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

A kind soul, Betty worked with the Atlanta Alliance on Developmental Disabilities, where she dedicated her time and energy to making a difference in the lives of others. Her compassion and commitment were evident to those around her.

As a loving wife, mother, and grandmother, Betty held her family close to her heart. She never missed anyone's birthday, ensuring her loved ones felt special and remembered. Her kitchen was a place of joy and comfort, where she made the best candy and banana pudding. She was a talented cook, and her meals were a testament to her love and care.

Betty is survived by her daughter, Shirley Walden, and her son, Norris Deyton, along with his wife, Melanie. Her legacy lives on through her 13 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren, and 12 great-great-grandchildren, who will forever cherish her memory and the love she so generously shared.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, March 15, 2025 at 11 o'clock in the Chapel of Parrott Funeral Home with Pastor Craig Walden officiating.

While Betty may no longer be with us, her spirit, kindness, and warmth will continue to inspire those who had the privilege of knowing her. We celebrate her life and the joy she brought to us all.

“Mamaw, Heaven has gotten sweeter. You were the epitome of a grandmother. Life will never be the same without you here. Today is not another day without you. It's another day closer to seeing you again. I love you to heaven and back.
