

Betty Brown Tarpley

November 21, 1920 - February 1, 2013

Mrs. Betty Brown Tarpley of Aiken, SC passed away February 1, 2013. She is survived by her husband, Marvin Tarpley of Aiken, SC; son, James Tarpley and his wife Debbie of Aiken, SC and several nieces and nephews. Graveside services will be held Sunday, February 3, 2013 at 2:30 at Bethany UMC cemetery with Dr. Gerry Davis officiating. Those wishing may sign the online guestbook at www.parrottfuneralhome.com. Parrott Funeral Home and Crematory, 770-964-4800.

Tribute Wall

I.

“ My deepest sympathies go to the Tarpley family. May you take comfort in knowing that soon god will end all suffering and death for good. We also have the hope of seeing our loved ones again, right here on earth. May the God of comfort always be with the family in the days ahead.-Revelation 21:4, Acts 24:15, Isaiah 25:8.

I.Jeffries - February 07, 2013 at 12:00 AM

DH

“ Mr. Tarpley, James and Debbie, We are so sorry for your loss. Although, we did not know Mrs. Tarpley well, we certainly enjoyed spending the last couple of Thanksgiving and Christmas Holidays with all of you. We especially enjoyed hearing the stories of the Tarpley's long wonderful life together.

Donna Hudson - February 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM

RA

“ From: Gail and Ron (Debbie's Sister and Brother -n-law)

To: Family of Betty Tarpley..Please know we are thinking of your family and friends at this sad time. We know Mrs Betty was a fine woman and very well loved by her family..especially by her husband, Marvin. We know the up coming days , months, years without her will be an emotional adjustment.Thinking back on sweet memories will help keep her close to you. We both have lost our mothers and know that there is never any one else as special as your mother and no relationship so precious. We will continue to keep you in our thoughts and prayers and please know time heals our pain of loss. We love you.

Ron and Gail Ashcraft - February 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM

BD

“ Dear Tarp,

How sad it was to hear of Betty's passing. We were friends for so long with many memories over the sixty-plus years. While you men got the news on the airwaves, we gals took care of the children visiting between houses (that's the short version). Eddy and Debbie remember biking with Jimmy up and down the big hill. I remember our adult get-togethers listening to you play the piano and singing with Ed, while we gals danced the jitterbug!

I love her and shall miss her, Tarp, yet through our faith, we know she is with our Lord Jesus. Remember the refrain, "Many things about tomorrow, I don't seem to understand; but I know who holds tomorrow, and I know who holds my hand".

The entire family sends you and your family our prayers for peace and comfort through this difficult time.

Love,

Beverly

Beverly Dunbar - February 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM

AS

“ Part of the "Greatest Generation", Aunt Betty will be well remembered by many. The trip to Cape Canaveral with the boys, summers at Tybee with the sisters, and her pecan pies are but a few of the memories that will surface time and again. The Brown girls are back together again.

A.P. and Diana Solomon - February 03, 2013 at 12:00 AM

DT

“ James and Dad,

Mom is now resting peacefully. No more pain or sorrow. She is in a better place. I love both of you more than you will ever know. It will not be easy going forward, but we will make it one day at a time.

Debbie Tarpley - February 02, 2013 at 12:00 AM