

Beverly Louise Shelton

May 5, 1940 - April 8, 2024

Beverly Shelton, born on May 5, 1940, in Atlanta, peacefully passed away on April 8, 2024, in Fairburn Georgia. She was 83 years old.

Beverly dedicated many years of her life to her role as a Sales associate at Sears, where she excelled in assisting and serving her customers with kindness and diligence.

She is survived by her loving sons, Tony Shelton (April) and Robert Shelton, along with her cherished grandson Christopher Burke, and granddaughter Courtney Hall (Chris), who brought immense joy to her life. Beverly's legacy lives on through her great-grandchildren Madison, Emma, Andersen, and Olivia.

In the embrace of eternal rest, Beverly is reunited with her beloved husband Eddie Shelton, daughter Pamela Burke, mother Mabel Howard, father Delbert Howard, brother Larry Howard, sisters Marilyn Harrison and Joyce Hay. She will be fondly remembered by her sister Judy Hay (Gary), brother Mike Howard, numerous nieces, nephews, and many others whose lives she touched.

Beverly's kind spirit and unwavering love will forever be treasured by all those who knew her. May she rest in peace, surrounded by the love of those who went before her.

“ I remember the Shelton family from Center Park Baptist Church in East Point. Tony and Robbie were members of our youth group. Eddie and Beverly were some of the nicest people in the community. I have a lot of wonderful memories at Center Park including Grandpa Shelton and all of the family. My thoughts and prayers are with you during these difficult days of adjustment. May The Lord continue to bless and keep you close. Doug Brown
