I will never forget the little green dress you bought me to wear to moms funeral and the way you taught me how to shine my Patten leather shoes with a biscuit. I will miss all the birthday calls every year I always knew it was my birthday by your phone calls to tell me happy birthday. You will never be forgotten. Sleep well big brother until we meet again

“ We are so sorry about your dad and so very sorry we are unable to be there today. Bill was like a father to me. If I got out of line he wouldn't hesitate to get on my tail but also taught me so much. Heaven definitely gained an angel and he will be missed on this Earth. I pray for comfort for you all during this time and healing in your hearts.
