“ What a truly fine gentleman. He lived a great life. I remember very fondly the times I got to tag along on some fishing adventures with Billy and Robert. My heart goes out to the entire Peacher family.

With love

“ Carol, Susan & Robert - I am very sad to hear of your father passing. I also share your grief during this time. At this time however, you can take comfort in knowing the many lives your dad had such a positive influence on. I miss his kind words and sense of humor some 40 years later. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers, Bill

“ We moved next door to Mr. Peacher and his wife Ross in 2000. Shortly after Ross took ill. He took the best care of her I have ever seen. Every woman would be so lucky to have someone like him. He was the best neighbor anyone could ask for. God bless everyone who knew him, he will be greatly missed. Prayers to the family. Know he walks with Ross in Heaven.

“ Susan and family, I am so sorry about your Dad. He surely must have been a good Christian man from all the remarks. I know he and your Mother are having fun right now. I know you will miss him but you know we are all getting to that time in our life. I will lift you and your family in prayer during this difficult time. Love, Ms. Nestlehutt.

“ My second father. Loved all the trips we took, camping, mammoths caves, etc. In the station wagon. He was such a loving soul to put up with all of us extra kids on their vacations. Mr. and Mrs. Peacher you truly made the memories for me so memorable. I will never forget either of you. Love you R.I.P. Susan, Robert, and Carol you are in my prayers. Love you
