“ My Mother, Blanche O. Watkins, Sams never thought about herself it was always about her siblings. She sacrificed so much during her life to provide for us. In 1968 Mom lost her Son, Ziemans Simmons, in a car accident at the age of 18, Mom never really got over this. She and my StepFather, Thomas Sams and I always referred to as Dad, went on to live a simple life in Fairburn Ga. for many years. In 2003 Mom suffered a massive stroke that rendered her unable to care for herself, with the help of my sister, Dad, my wife and very special caregiver, Beatrice , we cared for her for Mom for almost 10 years. In a way I am glad that Mom really did not know any of us. My Sister, Janice Atkins, and My Dad, Thomas Sams both passed away before Mom. I am convinced that had Mom had the ability to realize this she herself would have passed much sooner. I am so thankful for all the time that God gave me with my Mom Dad will forever be in my thoughts.

I Love and miss you Both so much and look forward to seeing you again,

Your Son Alan
