“ I loved hearing Bonnie's beautiful southern accent, especially when she was complaining about our company's technical help desk (which was often). She was a great co-worker and peer. I will miss her dearly. May God be pleased with her soul.

“ Words can not describe just how deeply your missed. I will forever cherish all the conversations and time spent praying and talking and I can't leave out crying... lol. Your laughter was out of this world. Your sense of humor was like non other. Especially when talking about CLL...my deepest condolences to you and the family... you were more than just a coworker but a friend. I will forever cherish our time. Love you always.
