

Bonnie Gayle Livesay

August 20, 1955 - February 8, 2025

Bonnie Gayle Livesay, born on August 20, 1955, passed away on February 8, 2025, at the age of 69. She was a cherished sister, aunt, niece, and cousin, whose presence brought joy to all who knew her.

Bonnie was known for her boundless joy and her dedication to serving others. She had a remarkable talent in the kitchen, being an excellent cook and baker, always delighting her family with her culinary creations. Her creativity extended beyond the kitchen, as she was also skilled in crafts such as painting, crocheting, and jewelry making.

Her nurturing spirit shone through in the way she lovingly spoiled her nieces and nephews, leaving them with countless fond memories. Bonnie had a heart for taking care of others, and her warmth and kindness will be dearly missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing her.

She is survived by her loving sister, Tracy Eason; her adored nieces, Hope Eason and Charli Eason; her cherished nephew, Caleb Eason; her beloved aunt, Barbara Edmonds; and her dear cousin, Brenda Hamrick. Bonnie's legacy of love and joy will continue to live on in their hearts.

Tribute Wall

DD

“ Bonnie was a special lady. Always kind and smiling. She loved sharing stories of her family. We will surely miss her always here at Pruitt Greenville, Ga.

Debbie Davis - February 11, 2025 at 11:28 AM

“ Bonnie had a hard life for the most part -- but stayed positive and sweet to the end, She will be missed by those who loved her.

Thank you TRACY for being there for her = she loved you and your family dearly.

I am glad she is no longer in pain and she is with her Beloved Grandma Burdette who helped raise her. And her mom and brother who meant the world to her.

Brenda Hamrick - cousin

Brenda Hamrick - February 10, 2025 at 01:48 PM

BE

Bonnie had such a sweet heart she didn't have an easy life but seemed to be happy, the nurses and people that helped her thought she was a special patient, I will miss her dearly but glad she is no longer in pain. It is sad to think she is no longer with us. Rest in peace my sweet neice

Barbara Edmonds - February 10, 2025 at 06:50 PM