“ I will never forget all the little talks we would have at the gym man. You always had a genuine smile on your face and a positive word to say and was always helping others. You will be missed man.

“ *Do not judge a biography by it's length,
Nor by the number of pages in it.
Judge it by the richness of it's contents*

Sometimes those unfinished are among the most poignant

*Do not judge a song by it's duration
Nor by the number of it's notes
Judge it by the way it touches and lifts the soul*

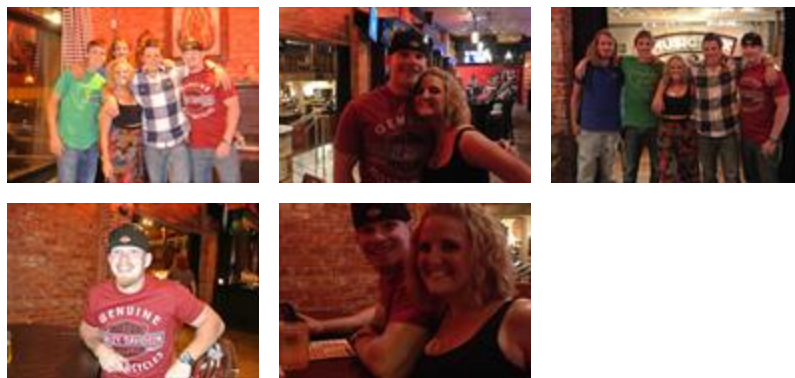

Sometimes those unfinished are among the most beautiful

*And when something has enriched your life
And when it's melody lingers on in your heart
Is it unfinished?
Or is it endless?*

“ I could go on and on about memories of you Brandon. I will never forget you coming over and bringing a project you needed to complete about "Monster Trucks" You and I dug up dirt in the yard and made a Monster Truck project. So blessed to have spent time with you and made so many memories. From the time I we met you would jump in the car with me anytime I was around and leaving, sleeping in our huge closet calling it your bedroom, staying up all night prank calling people or playing video games to you grown up and making memories with my kids. We've picked at each other since the day I met you. I didn't only gain a husband in marriage but another lil brother too. You always had a smile on your face and making sure everyone around you did as well. God threw away the mold when he made you. We are going to miss you dearly. Until we see you again rest easy in paradise. We love you!
