“ Brandon, your smile and laughter was infectious. Your personality and your caring for your team and friends was motivating. When we last spoke, your joy was a pleasure to hear. Looking at the picture that is posted is exactly how I know many of us will always remember you. Thank you for your presence in my life and the life of so many others. You will be missed.

“ Brandon was a hard working man whenever I needed his help at work he was always there no wait he got the job done. Brandon was my family we all was work family because we're at work most of our times and build a great bond with each other. Brandon was always happy and had a smile on his face. Brandon was a person you could go vent to about your personal problems and didn't have to worry about hearing it again. I'm going to truly miss you...
