“ My sister, Brenda, was the most giving person I have ever known. She loved her Son more than anyone here on earth and he was so good to her especially when she needed him most! He was a loyal and loving son. She loved his family and enjoyed being with her grandchildren Haven and Alivia. She loved me and helped me throughout my life. I will miss my sister but I am at peace knowing I will see her and my parents again because of our belief in Jesus Christ.

News of Brenda's passing was shocking and I know I'm not alone in saying that it has left a void. I met Brenda through our home church, Second Baptist, College Park, Ga. She and her family were anchors and faithful servants in that family of faith. We were in youth group together. She brought a joy that was uniquely hers. Her bright smile, hearty laugh, sincerity and devotion to our Lord brightened our days and inspired our hearts. She was loved by many and continues to be.
