“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I too know the sting of death. The memories of good times will carry you thru these sad days. I hope that you can surround yourself with family and those who can build you up with the comfort you need. There is the best support found in God's word. Please read Isaiah 25:8. Death will soon be a thing of the past and there will be no more tears. Take care of yourself and let the scriptures fill you with hope and promise.

“ We are all very saddened by the passing of B. J., but we know he is truly now at peace. We know that this is a very difficult time for you. Try to remember the little things, the shared smiles, the warm hugs, the laughter. The pain might seem unbearable now, but in time, it is these memories that will win through and you will find happiness again. Our deepest sympathies are with you during this time of loss and hope you can find reassurance in the care of your friends and allow the loving memories you have of B.J. To help you through. Special thanks to Sarah and Reba for all you have done In loving and caring for him.
