“ It's been almost 2 years now Bruce. I shake me head realizing I can't talk with you anymore. We had over 20 years of friendship. Working around each other and talking. Laughing and sharing. I am grateful God placed us where would meet and become friends. I once got to thinking about my death and asked you to please tell my wife and girls I loved them, but I never expected this turn of events. I miss you my friend. You were, are a blessing in my life. Randy Hillhouse PS You say to say to me Mr. HILLY don't be silly!

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Holman family . Bruce Will be missed greatly by family family and friends .

Bruce and I worked at coco cola we dominated the Douglasville market .

Bruce was a hard worker he got to know

Everyone in in the stores. Bruce was a family man he loved and cherished his wife and his two children . He was a big Alabama fan . Always enjoyed working & Fellowship with Bruce always enjoy breaking bread together at lunch . Most of all I cherish his friendship .

Rest in peace my friend
