“Buster and i were in the same new hire class. Hit it off, as low time, previous company employees. Roomed together in MIA, DCA and then MIA again. Chokin' Dog, you still owe me some increment pay money!!! Haven't seen him since the strike but miss him. My sincere sympathies Joan! He was a good man!

“Buster was a tremendous aviator who exemplified the best of Eastern.

Blue skies and tailwinds, my friend.

“ In my 10 years at Eastern Airlines,5 were in Atlanta where I not only served along side Buster but considered him a mentor.He and many other more senior pilots taught me a lot about my job,Eastern and the Industry.

He was a man of courage,having stood with so many others during those difficult times in 1989.

And as a neighbor,he was a man of decency and character,who will be missed.

One day, I parked in the employee parking lot and was dragging my bags toward the crew bus. As I approached, the bus pulled away leaving me in its cloud of exhaust. Buster saw the whole thing. He waited in the parking lot until that driver pulled up to his stop. He issued a stern warning to never ever do that to an Eastern pilot again. See you soon Buster.
