“ I can't believe you are gone! My grands sure loved singing and dancing with you. I remember the oldest at her dance recital saying all she saw was Mr. Butch sitting over in his wheelchair dancing and smiling! No more pain for you buddy! We love and will miss you!

I celebrate Butch today! He's definitely one to celebrate in my heart. He leaves a legacy of courage. He had courage to move on with life when most would have given up. I admired that because I thought of his courage on the days when I needed some, he helped me by just being him. God gave us a gift in him, He also had integrity and character. There are not many like him out there so he made a real difference with his life and those he touched. He was a Marine for sure so Butch I love you and salute you. I look forward to seeing you again! Sincerely 💖 Yvonne Carter

“ I could write a book about all the reasons I cared about and loved you Butch, but you already knew and I know that same care and love came back to me. I was so lucky to have you as my brother.

The last few days have shown how many lives you touched as people have shared their thoughts and memories of you. We will all keep your memory close to our heart. You will be missed always.

This is not goodbye. I will see you again one day my hero.
