“ I am sorry for your loss please accept my sincere condolences. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus promises of the earthly resurrection(:Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved ever again. Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Dr. Jernigan was an amazing professor! His knowledge of the Bible was outstanding and his passion for the Lord was infectious! He treated his students as if each were special. I always thought I was one of his favorites, but now I realize that he treated each of his students that way. I was fortunate to take several of his classes. At the end of one of those classes, he gifted each one of his students with the book or bible of their choice. His generosity knew no bounds. Although I am sad that I will no longer be his student, I am rejoicing that he is wearing his crown and is at rest in his Savior's arms! Praise the Lord!

“ Myra and all of your family and also Carron's brothers and sisters, you are all in my thoughts and prayers. To lose a loved one is so heart rending. But I know that your trust in our God will bring you through this sad time. I am sorry that I will not be able to be with you, but the flu has its own ideas.

“ Dear Myra,

You are very special to Francis and to me and C.A. was a true servant of our Heavenly Father. You and your family will be continually in our thoughts and prayers as you deal with the loss of a part of your self! While I know you can rejoice in the fellowship C.A. is enjoying in heaven, depending on Jesus to soothe your hurt and loneliness will be a moment by moment effort. Rely on your faith and your friends and family to get you through the dark times. May God touch you with His Grace, Peace, and abiding Love!

“ The world lost a wonderful man with your passing. I know from your life that you were a wonderful husband, father, pastor, and friend. You were a dear friend to my grandparents who will miss you dearly. I enjoyed seeing you whole they were down here visiting. You always took care of them. Thank you for that. Before I was even old enough to plan my wedding I knew that you were going to be the one to be my pastor. You will be missed.
