“ I don't believe I ever spoke to Mr. King, but I knew who he was because his son John was a year or two behind me in school. But I witnessed an event that spoke volumes about the kind of man he was. I was in the congregation at the First Baptist Church in Fairburn when he led John down the aisle to the preacher, to ask the Lord Jesus Christ to be his Savior. I never forgot it. Rest in Peace Sir!

“ Uncle Jimmy was very special to my father and to my father's brothers back here in Richmond. Even though Jimmy and Helen and family lived in Atlanta, it only took them a few minutes to reconnect once they were in each other's presence. Our whole family has lost a great family member, great friend and a very good man. May his reunion with Aunt Helen and family be as glorious and happy and I know Uncle Jimmy and Aunt Helen deserve. From all of us in Richmond, our best to all of our family in Atlanta. Jimm Mann
